Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 18 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A showery day, with far east seeing best of shelter.

Today:
Sunshine and showers through Monday with outbreaks frequent and heavy at times across the Northwest, but isolated around the the east coast where the best of the sunshine develops. Westerly winds fresh to strong across coasts.

Tonight:
Cloud building across far south to bring some rain overnight. Turning cloudy but remaining dry in Central Belt. Clear spells and further showers across the north, which wane towards dawn.

Tuesday:
Cloudy from Central Belt southwards with patchy rain across south, perhaps turning to sleet and snow at times. Sunshine and scattered showers elsewhere.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Wednesday dry, occasionally bright for most. Brisk northerly winds bringing showers or longer periods of rain, sleet or snow for Thursday, focused in northeast. Cold wintry northerly flow for Friday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.